Mr. William Dles of near Enterprise, has the foundation laid for a handsome residence which he will occupy on the lot adjoining the U. B. church. The residence, when completed, will be one of the finest in the city.

On Tuesday of last week, Mr. Noel Hamblin, while hauling fodder for his stock was accidentally thrown from the sled, sustaining a broken leg. He is under care of Dr. Smith, and will soon be able to get out and about again.

Mrs. Poston of venerable mother of Mr. Winfield and Clarence Poston, died at her home in Nelsonville on Tuesday of last week. She was the widow of L. D. Poston, and well and highly esteemed in the social circles of the Valley.

The old Elm Tree on the Catholic church lot, has been cut down to make room for the new parsonage to be built this summer. The Elm, according to the testimony of the State Forestry Commission, was next after the Logan Elm on the Boggs farm, near Circleville, the largest Elm in the state. Its age has been estimated at four hundred years.

The Logan Natural Gas Co. is preparing to pipe gas through our Valley by Logan from W. Va. to Cleveland and Toledo. The piping, it is estimated will involve the expenditure of over two million dollars.

Mrs. Geo. Hartman was called to Lancaster last week by the death of her mother.

Dr. Earnest Rauch, the popular young physician of Lancaster, was a visitor among relatives in our city last week.

Si Allen has sold his sand bank farm to the Legislature of Ohio, for Asylum purposes. The argument for the purchase is that it is needed for recreation ground for cattle on the Dairy farm bought from Gen. Grosvenor.

The Logan School Board has been reorganized by the election of Judge Bright as President, Frank Brown, Treasurer and Wm Lay Secty. Prof. Pierpont has been reelected superintendent for three years.

Miss Anna Powers was 'at home' to her friends on last Saturday afternoon at the residence of her uncle, Fr. Powers. Many of Miss Anna's schoolmates called to bid her good-bye on the eve of her departure for an extended visit to her parents, who reside in Idaho, and extended best wishes for pleasant visit and a safe return to Logan, where she is a general favorite and has unnumbered friends. Elegant refreshments were served.

The Daughters of the Needle held a very pleasant meeting at the home of Miss Dora Nelle Green on Thursday evening of last week, complimentary to Miss Anna Powers. During the evening, an interesting program was rendered, games played and prizes awarded. Several invited guests were present. Elegant refreshments were served.

Lpo XIII and Trees.

In the chapter on "The Sacred Grove of the Arvales," Prof. Lanciani pays this tribute to the present pope; "Perhaps the most touching instance of care and respect towards old trees is to be found in the Alban hills, in the avenue which leads from Albano to Castle Gandolfo. Wherever one of the old giants—ibexes, oaks or Elms—planted by Sixtus V, at the end of the Sixteenth century, shows signs of decrepitude, begins to lean and bend as if asking help and support its trunk and branches are propped by means of columns of masonry. The person who shows such delicate feeling toward the trees of Castle Gandolfo is Pope Leo XIII, himself a splendid specimen of vitality at an age which it is seldom given to mankind to reach—Catholic Columbian.
